LIVE IN GODLY PROSPERITY

Leah D. Daughtry, Pastor of The House of the Lord Church in Washington, D.C., and Chief of Staff of the Democratic National Committee (DNC) will present “The Prosperity Principle”, a Bible based financial seminar, Saturday, February 10, 2007, 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon at the Oberlin Public Library. The seminar we will explore the principles of prosperity. The straightforward, down-to-the-basics discussion will provide the step-by-step tools and information needed to live in Godly prosperity.

Besides her pastoral responsibilities Ms. Daughtry is Administrator for the Board of the Elders of The House of the Lord Churches. Since 2002, Ms. Daughtry has served as Chief of Staff of the DNC, the governing body of the national Democratic Party, where she is responsible for the day-to-day management of the national Party’s affairs. Prior to the DNC, Ms. Daughtry served as the Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management at the United States Department of Labor, with oversight for the development of the Department’s management programs and policies, including responsibility for the Department’s $35 billion budget. The program is free and open to the public. Register online at: www.geocities.com/oberlinhotlfellowship
